The commercial strategy produces its first results

The Group reported €124.3 million in revenue for the 2019 first half compared to €115.3 million for last year's same period, representing growth of 7.7%. Excluding the impact from the non-renewal of a contract in Algeria in 2018 (€12 million for the entire 2018 first half), revenue was up by more than 20%.

After a stable first quarter, revenue in Q2 grew 15.6% to €67.3 million, representing sequential growth of 18.0%. This Q2 performance was bolstered by the integration of the Brazilian companies, Alternativa and Beta, consolidated for the first time in May and contributing revenue of €2.8 million plus a one-off contract in Eurasia representing nearly €3.0 million.

This growth highlights the benefits of the commercial strategy in place, as operations in Eurasia and Sub-Saharan Africa are ramped up and new operating countries are being opened: Malawi and Senegal.
